November Book Club Meeting: Sharing by Alumna Author

Are you interested in exploring the Safari, meeting the indigenous Africans, seeing the raw savanna, the real lions, and breathing a different air? Envy this kind of exciting experience? Our dearest past student, Yoyo has, for years, been backpack-travelling globally. In 2015, she took the challenge to travel across Africa with her husband, Silver. Recently, they published a book to share this wonderful moment. Do you want to hear a mouthwatering first-person story or learn any backpack travelling tips? This November, Yoyo and Silver will share their adventures and their book with us at Good Hope School. Come! Let's explore this beautiful world together.
