September's Book Club Meeting on 8 Sep

This is a memoir of three generations of a Chang's family. Yet, this is more than their private family life. This extraordinary family portrait mirrors China's century of turbulence. Starting from Chang's grandmother's unfortunate marriage to a warlord as a concubine to her mother's suffering under the early Communist's ruling and finally to Chang's personal experience as a "barefoot doctor". Chang leads you through one of the darkest periods in Chinese history with gripping and moving details. While you may be heartbroken by the drama and horror at that time, you will repeatedly be uplifted by their wisdom and courage under the toughest time imaginable.

This book is the Winner of the 1992 NCR Book Award and the 1993 British Book of the Year Award.
